The Fall Season at Shoreline

November is a great month for golf here at Shoreline Golf Links. The annual Thanksgiving Shotgun is around the corner and we have some great sales in our Golf Shop and Online Store for Black Friday & Cyber Monday. Be sure to take advantage of our group golf deals throughout the Fall & Winter seasons and be on the look-out for our E-Club specials. In the giving spirit of the upcoming holidays, we have stepped up our fundraising efforts going into 2018 with our Get-it-on-the-Green contests and other charitable actions. Read about our upcoming events, course updates, and other happenings at Shoreline Golf Links.

Lost your ball in a burrowing animal hole?

Rule Meaning:

If you hit a ball towards an area that has holes dug by a burrowing animal and that ball cannot be found, you can get free relief in that condition (the ball being presumably down the burrowed hole is

Shoreline Golf Links is home to both ground squirrels and burrowing owls. You may find that your ball may have been lost due to landing in a burrowing animal hole.

Ball in abnormal ground condition not found:

It is a question of fact whether a ball that has not been found after being struck toward an abnormal ground condition (i.e. holes dug by burrowing animals) is in such a condition (USGA Rule 25-1c). If the marker, paired players and the tournament committee all deem the ball in question is in such a condition, a player may take relief under this Rule. The spot where the ball last crossed the outermost limits of the abnormal ground condition must be determined and, for the purpose of applying this Rule, the ball is deemed to lie at this spot and the player must proceed following Rule 25-1b.
